I believe that the current proposed remedy in the Microsoft Antitrust case is not sufficient to cause ANY serious penalty to Microsoft. I believe that the state of the computer industry and the ability of competitors to truly compete with Microsoft would NOT be furthered by this proposal. I strongly suggest that the Department of Justice not allow Microsoft to receive such a light penalty that even gives them protections that other companies do not enjoy.

I agree with and have submitted to be co-signed as a supporter of Dan Kegel's Open Letter to DOJ Re: Microsoft Settlement.
